

Pierce The Veil, One Hundred Sleepless Nights

I can't wait to see your brilliant face
Light up the room around the pillowcase
She said, "can you come over to my LA place?
I got something to tell you and it just can't wait."
When I showed up, you held the door in tears,
Sat on the couch under the chandelier.
You said you're having a baby and before I could cry
You're leaving me just when I thought you were mine.

But I don't see your face, taken by the one hearted race home now,
But don't tell your other man... I got a hell of a plan.

Failing lights...
Amass one hundred sleepless nights
And I might be holding on too tight
But there is a beast in my heart and he won't let you leave alive

Nightmares
No longer wait for sleep
Crawl on the ground up on your hands and knees
Just like a lion and you're the queen of the pride
And we will feast together till the bones are dry.

But I don't see your face, taken by the one hearted race home now,
But don't tell your other man... He's not part of the plan.

Failing lights...
Amass one hundred sleepless nights
And I might be holding on too tight
But there is a beast in my heart and he won't let you leave alive

Do you still love me? I am dying to know.
Or did you forget what we shared.
Out of sight out of mind I was never even there

Failing lights...
Amass one hundred sleepless nights
And I might be holding on too tight
But there is a beast in my heart and he won't let you leave alive

This is the price you'll pay
Thoughts in your head that will never leave.

Don't you forget what we had
It's like I was never even there.
