

Pink, Today's The Day

I've spent enough time alone
Up in my bedroom at home
Been kinda bored lately
I've been hating everything I see
But you could watch me
You could help me down the rabbit hole with you
I could go with you
You could lead the way I'd go hand in hand with you

Today's the day I've been waiting for
Tomorrow won't come after all
Yesterday is so far away
And today is the only day
Somebody please stop the clock
Don't ever let this day stop
I never wanna go home
No, no, no

I used to want to grow up
I thought that I could be free
But now I'm realizing
I draw the line and crazy and ain't for me
I get no vacation
When I feel instead I just end up in a frenzy
So much to carry
These days are kinda scary I don't want the night to end

Today's the day I've been waiting for
Tomorrow won't come after all
Yesterday is so far away
And today is the only day
Somebody please stop the clock
Don't ever let this day stop
I never wanna go home
No, no, no

I'mma say today's my day
I'mma say today's my day
I'mma say today's my day
I'mma say it's gonna go my way

Today's the day I've been waiting for
Tomorrow won't come after all
Yesterday is so far away
And today is the only day
Somebody please stop the clock
Don't ever let this day stop
No, no, no
