

Pink, Whatever You Want

running like a dog
fighting like a bitch
too much
and I just can't stand it baby

even when I fall
you don't seem to give two shits
you don't see the
cuz you're just too cool, baby

neither of us would budge cuz we can't be wrong, baby finding up your arms
closing up your heart

I know /3x
you think it's me
cuz I want it all
you see
do we gotta talk
no you know you know
we must believe I'll fall apart

I feel like our shop's going down tonight
but it's always darkest before the light
and that's enough for me to cry
whatever you want
whatever you need
whatever you do

tryna to get a breath
thinking about the time you said that I was your heart baby tryna understand how a grown man goes on without a body part

I could walk away
I could always cash my chips baby
and I'd be ok. baby
I would be ok.
and you might be ok.

you think it's me
cuz I want it all

even if I say that it's over now
even if we want to move on somehow

whoever said that love was sweet drunk a little too much whisky baby whoever said that life was easy never leaved anywhere with me I wouldn't change a thing cause you're the one I wanna sync with

I feel like our shop's going down tonight
and that's enough
