

Pirate Queen, Pirates From The Sea

Pirates, robbers, disobedient souls, we will set forth to the open seas

We are pirates from the sea, sailing to eternity
Come with us and be free, it's our destiny
Cursed to roam the sea forever, 'til we find the crown
Cursed by immortality, it's our prophecy

We take our guns, swords, hail our lords
The sea is burning, canons are shooting,
Preparing for the battle of the ships
We take our guns and swords, we hail our lords

Their crew is drowning, their ship is sinking to the bottom of the sea
Forever sailing the seven seas
Riding the wind on the pirate ship
The sky is dark and our guide is stars

Forever sailing the seven seas
Riding the wind on the pirate ship
The sky is dark and our guide is stars
Our flag is black, our hearts are scars

Immortal pirates
We never die
Amidst of many dangers
True glory awaits

Go forth in wrath,
Be of good courage,
Hold fast to what shines,
Surrender to no-one
