

Pitbull, Greenlight (ft. Flo Rida, LunchMoney Lew

Red light, green light
Everybody take a shot
Red light, green light
Give me everything you got
Red light, green light

Listem to you faith!
Flo Rida and LunchMoney
Three Miami boys, you know what time it is

Give me the green light
Cause I'm ready to go
Let's have a good time, let's go
What you waiting for?
You only got one life, one life
And we gon' live it up
So give me the green light, give it to me
Cause I'm ready to go,
Time, ready to go
Give me the green light

I got the green light mami and you know what that means
That we could do anything, anything that you dream
I wanna make you ooh, ah, until you scream
And I practice what I preach, if you know what I mean
I'mma about that mami, yeah I got the key and I'mma lock that mami
Yeah, we can roll and I'mma rock that mami
I do what I say and say what I mean, now let me jump in between
I'm getting loose in this thing, like OJ the Juice in this thing
Feeling like Left (?), boy, I burn the roof in this thing
I got all the women getting naked, feeling like Luke in this thing
Think it's a game
Now I got the green lit and the green right
All I need is, mummy, for you to give me the green light
So I can run through it like an easy pass
Find the G-spot and step on the gas

Give me the green light
Cause I'm ready to go
Let's have a good time, let's go
What you waiting for?
You only got one life, one life
And we gon' live it up
So give me the green light, give it to me
Cause I'm ready to go,
Time, ready to go
Give me the green light
