

Pixie Lott, Ocean

I'm an ocean pouring from my eyes
Built a boat and catch the rising tides
I'm so over yesterday,
Now just watch me sail away on this ocean
Oooh, the tears I've cried

It's deep in the night I miss you most
That's my worst time
Got to reach for the lights,
Can't let the shadows of that other life
Echoes bye bye bye forever
I thought we would stay together
Now I've got to kiss it all goodbye!!

There's an ocean pouring from my eyes,
Run emotion, rising like the tides
And there's nothing I could say
As I watch you drift away
On this ocean every tear I cry

If I'm lucky to be, I'm lucky to get out alive
The wound goes so deep, I took a deal with you last my light
Echoes bye bye bye forever
I thought we would stay together
Now I've got to kiss it all goodbye!!

There's an ocean pouring from my eyes,
Run emotion, rising like the tides
And there's nothing I could say
As I watch you drift away
On this ocean every tear I cry

Can't stop ocean on my tears
Just rise up!
There's an ocean pouring from my eyes,
Run emotion, it's here we say goodbye
I'm so over yesterday,
Now just watch me sail away on this ocean
Oooh, the tears I've cried
Ooh, forever together
Forever and ever and ever together!
Together!!
