

Pixies, ANDRO QUEEN

Now Andro Queen has lost her ring I think it used to sit right here encrusted in blue and hard and true for now I will kiss her finger

Have you ever seen Andro Queen wandering all for her ruby? one day she'll come in through my window yes, she gave me her own true pledge

For what's missing I'll sacrifice my flesh only kissing you is so hard in this wild thresh that's how it's been with Andro Queen

Loving on our bed of flowers breathing in the smell of her musk in a moon of milk she is scared, yes, she is but she shows me under her silk

I wave goodbye to Andro

she's off in a silver rocket off to the gas and rings of Saturn off her head she gave me a lock, yes, she did for my neck a rusted locket
