PJ Harvey, Good Fortune

Threw my bad fortune

Of the top of

A tall building

I'd rather have done it with you

Your boy's smile

Five in the morning

Looked into your eyes

And I was really in love

In Chinatown

Hung over

You showed me

Just what I could do

Talking about

Time travel

And the meaning

Just what it was worth

And I feel like

Some bird of paradise

My bad fortune slipping away

And I feel the

Innocence of a child

Everybody's got something good to say

Things I once thought

Unbelievable

In my life

Have all taken place

When we walked through

Little Italy

I saw my reflection

Come right of your face

I paint pictures

To remember

You're too beautiful

To put into words

Like a gypsy

You dance in circles

All around me

And all over the world

And I feel like

Some bird of paradise

My bad fortune slipping away

And I feel the

Innocence of a child

Everybody's got something good to say

So I take my

Good fortune

And I fantasize

Of our leaving

Like some modern-day

Gypsy landslide

Like some modern day

Bonnie and Clyde

On the run again

On the run again
