

PJ Harvey, Losing Ground

Losing ground
Under my feet
There's a low rumbling
There's a crack in the street
It's just no good
It's just no good anymore
Everything I do
Has been done before
Yeah I found my voice
Yeah I got nothing to say
The whole thing started
Cause my mind has gone away
I used to get high
Now I just get lost
I used to bark at the moon
The first one I came across
Almost here
Almost gone
Almost here
Almost gone
Almost where
We belong
Better watch where you step
Better watch what you say
Speak the truth, baby
Believe in what you say
Believe in what you say
It's just no good anymore
It's just no good anymore
You bet I got trouble baby
You bet I got trouble baby
You bet I got trouble baby
You bet I got trouble baby
