PJ Harvey, Passionless, Pointless

Let's Talk Let's talk Let the dirt fall Let Heads Roll No kind hand is reaching out for me tonight I slept facing the wall I dreamt of buildings in pieces You slept facing the wall and you wanted less than I wanted Passionless, Pointless. Where does the passion go? I'm asking There's no kindness in your hands No reaching out for me tonight You slept facing the wall and you wanted less than I wanted I slept facing the wall but when I met you how did you enter? I don't remembér How did we ever?
