

Plain White T's, Someone's Out There Waiting For

In some days and some nights
You question your whole life
(Everything's okay, everything's okay)
And some loves just pass through
It's not fair, it's not you
(Everything's okay, everything's okay)

Someone's out there waiting for you
Yes, you know it's true
Someone's out there waiting for you

And sometimes you feel low
The bright side just won't show
(Everything's okay, everything's okay)
But somehow and somewhere
The right one's still out there
(Everything's okay, everything's okay)

Someone's out there waiting for you
Yes, you know it's true
Someone's out there waiting for you

(Everything's okay, everything's okay)
(Everything's okay, everything's okay)
Don't be sad when no one's calling
Get back up when you keep falling
Down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down
And don't you ever stop believing
Just because your heart's been beaten
Down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down

Someone's out there waiting for you
Yes, you know it's true
Someone's out there waiting for you
Ooh
Someone's out there waiting for you
Yes, you know it's true
Someone's out there waiting for you
