

Plazma, One Caress

Suddenly

It takes my breath away
It's bitter like a widow's tears
It's sweeter than paradise
Help me
I've never flown so high
Oh babe I believe in love
It really appears

Just one caress to win the winner
And one more sinner becomes your man
I sacrifice my decent story to your eyes

Suddenly

It takes me by surprise
It's silent like emptiness
It's louder than thunderstorm
Catch me
I never fell so low
But I do believe in love
It hopelessly goes
