

Pola, Brackenberry Lane

So you talk in your sleep
And you wonder why
No one is listening to you now

You are sleeping so deep
Nothing to bother you no how

So you dream you are God
Knowing ever-ee-thing
And you're gonna teach the world to care

Don't you think that it's odd
When you turn out the light
There's no one there

No matter what you tell me I want to see the world
A beautiful place

Brackenberry Lane
Wake up your sleepy head
You only see the rain
Bring on the sunshine
Brackenberry lane

Life passes you by
And the joy and the fun
Why did you leave them in the cold?

You bring us the news
And make yourself sad
Take off your blindfold

No matter what you tell me I want to see the world
A beautiful place

Brackenberry Lane
Wake up your sleepy head
You only see the rain
Bring on the sunshine
Brackenberry lane

So come with me I'll take you up there
You'll feel the sun rays and breathe the fresh air
Forget the pain
Time for Brackenberry Lane

No matter what you show me I want to see the world
A beautiful place

Brackenberry Lane
Wake up your sleepy head
We got so much to gain
Bring on the sunshine

Brackenberry Lane
Wake up your sleepy head
You only see the rain
Bring on the sunshine
