

Pola Rise, No More (feat. Slowsteps)

broken lights guide us out of sight whispers in corners
try the best to warn us even thou the speed

I want to move
I am edge of close
... close to you

no one to blame
it's about to for a ... we running in a circles we're lost in translation looking for a place that we called home seeing through the lens to get to know

we're waiting for the light but the sun won't raise anymore
we're screaming so loud but no one can hear us at all
can't scream so loud anymore
running with the crowd
we're all alone
now we're all alone

passion
ex brothers
lost love things worthless
the distance might... fuse be close ..

in the end you are the shade of the same there's won't be no reason to ...
