

Pola, You Disappear

Gentle cloud strokes my skin
When I drift away
Soft suspense blissful light
Of the cold moon-ray

Your silhouette touching mine
Or is it just a trace?
You're so close
Lips so near that I can taste

So why do you disappear
You disappear
I am awake
I am alone
Where did you go?

Coral lips soft on skin
When I close my eyes
Daring looks set on me
Eager for surprise
I see your face
Wistful smile
I long for your embrace
You're so close
Lips so near that I can taste

So why do you disappear
You disappear
I am awake
I am alone
Where did you go?
