

Polina, Faena

I left my heart in Faena
in the gold rush of the sun
Buenos Aires to Miami
I'm falling hard until I drown

I left my heart in Faena
hot glances by the candlelight love how he walks in his sombrero and plants a rose in every heart

I'm just here for the night and I can't hold it inside it took one look in your eyes to know I'm in paradise you're like a star in my mind no way I can say goodbye I'm changed forever
let's stay in Faena Faena Faena
I lost my heart in Faena
