

Poppy, Hard

Hard, my body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark
And I'm proven to keep my intellect sharp
Dark, my sense of humor's so dark
'Til it's flyin' through a spark
I see you reachin', can't catch me off guard

Hard, my body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark, shoot to hit the mark
Keep my nails so sharp, tear you apart wherever you are
I'm so hard, I'm so hard, I'm so hard
I'm so hard

Keep my trust, but I can't go very far
Take a walk in the park
And I'm weakened, 'cause you're lookin' at my car
I wrote death, and saw it as it was
I thought that it was tough
But he crumbled with my touch

Hard, my body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark, shoot to hit the mark
Keep my nails so sharp
Tear you apart, whatever you are
I'm so hard, I'm so hard, I'm so hard

No spine, now right, now left, now it dies
I always pay the price
No spine, now right, now left, now it dies
I always finish her pride
No spine, now right, now left, now it dies
I always pay the price
No spine, now right, now left, now it dies
I always finish her pride

Hard, my body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark, shoot to hit the mark
Keep my nails so sharp
Tear you apart, whatever you are
I'm so hard, I'm so hard, I'm so hard
I'm so hard
