

Porter Robinson, Musician

No, i don;t miss the feeling anymore
I want soemthing new to love
I was so nostalgic
But i am dfine without it

You don;t really want
What you think you want
No i don't wanna lose it
This emotion
Yes, i just wanna do everything
I got so excited
When i finally dfind it
It just gets brighter from now on

Then you sigh
You know i love you
So i think i should tell you, Porter
This life isn't it time taht you grow up
