Porter Robinson, Musician

No, i don;t miss the feeling anymore I want soemthing new to love I was so nostalgic But i am dfine without it

You don;t really want
What you think you want
No i don't wanna lose it
This emotion
Yes, i just wanna do everything
I got so excited
When i finally dfind it
It just gets brighter from now on

Then you sigh You know i love you So i think i should tell you, Porter This life isn't it time taht you grow up
