

Prefab Sprout, Dragons

The first time I saw you
I realized at once you were an angel in torment
How could I desert you?

I vowed in that moment
Nothing in this world or any other
Would ever threaten or hurt you

Dragons may guard your door
But I'm on my way to save you
Devils wage unholy war
But I'm on my way to save you

The forces of darkness
May mobilize 100 million demons
An army to keep you far from me
Determined to stop me
They'll spend eternity
Regretting they ever crossed me
They'll suffer, believe me

Dragons may guard your door
But I'm on my way to save you
Devils wage unholy war
But I'm on my way to save you

To save you
