

Pretty Maids, Fantasy

I see the stars are falling down from the sky in the summerheat but I dont know the reason why maybe thats conceit but I can hear the flowers grow in the pouring rain dont ask me why cause I dont know am I going insane

Is this a dream or reality
I dont know what is going on now is this a nightmare please tell me where do I belong

Chorus:

Just a fantasy
Just a fantasy
Just a fantasy
Just a fantasy

Now I feel like a burning fire growing stronger and stronger telling people their desire but they aint got none any longer I feel like sitting on a purple sky riding on the wind flying low and flying high again and again

Is this a dream or reality
I dont know what is going on now
Is this a nightmare please please tell me where do I belong
