

Pretty Reckless, Oh My God

Oh my god, wish I was thin
Wish I was vain on more human being
I'm just like them, stuck in the dirt
I am a victim of my own self-worth

And now
I wanna take it back /3x
To when I was so dumb and so innocent
My god, wish I was black
Wish I had soul and my music attacked
I am so white, shine like the Sun
Just like we've been equal ___ to the one

And
I wanna take it back /3x
To when I was so dumb and so innocent

My god, wish I could think
Wish I could do something smarter than sing
But I'm just a face painted in mud
Don't try for perfect, it's never enough

I'm just hanging with my head down /4x

I wanna take it back /3x
To when I was so dumb and so innocent

Oh my god, wish I was dead
Wish I could turn off the noise in my head
Oh my god, wish I could breathe
Not fair I want some monstrous screams
Oh my god, wish I was numb
The weight on my back didn't feel like a ton
Oh my god, wish I could pray
Believe in the words your religions all say
Oh my god, wish I could swim
Cause I'm gonna drown in depression again
