

Primal Scream, Flowers In The Sky - Revolving P

(written by andrew innes)

The flowers are in the sky for you
The flowers are in the sky
They're red and green and orange and blue
The flowers are there for you

The flowers are in the sky, the flowers are in the sky
The flowers are in the sky, the flowers are in the sky

The grass is green in the fields for you
The grass is green in the fields
It's red and green, it's orange and blue
The grasses are there for you ('cause I love you)

How does it feel/i love you (repeat simultaneously)
(repeat til explosion)

I love you
