

Professor Fate, Limbo

Who are these spirits, whom you see before you?
Thee name and worship god and same reason
For no are the evil, lost and punished,
Thee have no hope, bet yea, we living on here.

Don't mess and tell me all what you know
Cause I myself for the one.
Did any ever go on his own from this place?
To place ...

Who are these soldiers, your separate from the rest?
The name we take goes off within your light.
Cause each of this spirits shares with me the name
Called up by the long voice (???)

Silence here is just so seemly unsuspecting here
This(?) circle seven times, but don't know all
The evil here, and other (one greed this all)
We move along toward the lights.
