

Puddle Of Mudd, Away From Me

Yea Lies

Look at me now
Just sittin here by myself
And I think you found someone else
Now I'm gonna have to find
A way to put the bottle down
And why cant you see
That Im drowning in a pool of misery

Im always afraid
That youre gone
Away from me
Im always afraid
That youre lost in somebody
Im always afraid
That youre gone
Away from me
Im always afraid
That youre lost

So here I am
I don't wanna be by myself
And I think youre fucking someone else
now im gonna have to find a way
To take the knife out of my back
And how could you leave me
Stranded in a closet full of bones

Im always afraid
That youre gone
Away from me
Im always afraid
That youre lost in somebody
Im always afraid
That youre gone
Away from me
Im always afraid
That youre lost

Maybe you could let me stay
Maybe just for one more day
You could help me stay the same
Maybe things wont ever change
Maybe we could taste the rain
You could push me out the way

Now I sit here by myself
Think about somebody else
How could you let them take you away from me
Theres somebody else
Theres somebody else!

Im always afraid
That youre gone
Away from me
Im always afraid
Im always afraid
That youre gone
Away from me
Im always afraid
That youre...

Im always afraid [x7]
