

Puddle Of Mudd, Change My Mind

How could I believe anything you've ever said?
I'm on the bottom of your shoes
A little piece, a piece of shit
I never wanna hear you sing
You sound just like a little kid
You're like a journey through the world
Going the wrong direction

But something just ain't feeling right
And I think I'm losing track of time
But you're far away and out of sight
So I can't see straight
I'm going blind
Nothing's gonna change this time
Nothing's gonna change my mind

Don't even turn around
Just look away at everything
I think of all the things I've ever done
I've done to me
You know I did it to myself
So I'll stand up and I'll agree
I'm on the bottom of your shoes
A little peace
Some peace for me

But something just ain't feeling right
And I think I'm losing track of time
But you're far away and out of sight
So I can't see straight
I'm going blind
Nothing's gonna change this time
Nothing's gonna change my mind
