Puffy AmiYumi, ????

I kick your face, your proud face The balloon in the air is about to venture out You the last one to laugh? Who? Be careful you don't get lost Hey, I declare war on you Hey, it's about time now Your snobbish attitude, I know What's your main point Tired of hearing about your job Always, with hollow curiosity Now I take the lead Hey, I hope more than anything If together our collusion will most likely be abandoned We also slip and slide through the word, you know If for life, we'll have an end to it sometime So you don't have to cry in the night anymore, ha! Your stubborn voice cuts the air, desire, fastball, right on the mark Saturday you try to look good and act as if you know Hey, darling you Hey, you're my secret these days Once you fail it will be amazing We also have tricks and make shifts If together our collusion will most likely be abandoned We also slip and slide through the word, you know If for life, we'll have an end to it sometime So you don't have to cry in the night anymore, ha! Ha! Ha! I don't care
