&lt;/lyrics&gt;

You and me and probably everyone
Goes to the beach to heal their bodies
And the unease in their hearts
Oh yeah

Pinocchio hung his head, his long lose dragging him down
When you can lay yourself bare, it'll make you feel real

The wind blowing on me, and the waves rolling in
The setting sun and the shadows growing longer
When I feel it all, I can't help feeling like this, oh yeah

The wind blowing on me, and the waves rolling in
The setting sun and the shadows growing longer
The endless sea, the unchanging sea
You always help me, thank you

I tremble, unable to help myself feeling like this, oh yeah
Feeling like this, oh yeah
