Pulp, Love Love

I thought so long and suddenly I realised / I love love
I thought so long and suddenly I realised / I love love
Am I loving the girl / or the feeling I feel?
Is it just the idea that I like / or is it for real?
I recall a special friend, I invited her home for tea
And while my mother cooked a meal she was under the table with me
I thought so long and suddenly I realised / I love love
I thought so long and suddenly I realised / I love love
These ideas that I have / remain fixed in my head
Only the characters change / it's someone else there instead
One day we went down to the park to feed the ducks some bread
Foul fowls wouldn't touch a scrap so we jumped in the duckpond instead
I thought so long and suddenly I realised / I love love
I thought so long and suddenly I realised / I love love
Lalalalala...
