

Pulse Legion, One Thing

One Thing

Looking in
And looking out
I know your shame
I hold it
no way in
And no way out
Dont even try to change it

You&#039;re at the end of the line
This chosen life
You&#039;ll never take the blame
its always that one thing

Its never enough

Its always that one thing
no way in
And no way out
Its always that one thing

Its always that one thing..
