

Pulse Legion, What It Seems

What It Seems

I hold your face
The rage building inside
Its not what it seems
Its not what it seems

I hold your face
The breath taking all mine
Its not what it seems
Its not what it seems

I try to hide this feeling i dont need
Not this time
I guess the choice for reason ends
With me
Its not right
I hear the silent cry
And its screaming to me
I hold your face inside
And its trying to leave me

The nerve crashing in me
It still hurts inside
Its not what it seems
Its not what it seems
Cant stop it this time
It breaks from your eyes
Its not what it seems
Its not what it seems

I hear the silent cry
And its screaming to me
I hold your face inside
And its trying to leave me

And its not
What it seems...
