

Punchline, Play

learn your lesson
oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

I hope that you're listening confusions, dismiss them your problems will solve them selves I'm runnin I'm crazy I'm acting a bit hasty on my own you're gonna know

this is right now, this is forever (whoa) this is right now, this is forever you gotta learn your lesson now
this is right now, this is forever

and I wanna be something more close your eyes and you will see what I see, simply put there's nothing right and no one's left what I see is blinding take a walk outside and let the rain hit you because you deserve it so if no one knows it's in your head you should feel guilty everybody says you're going to regret this I didn't know my way then I don't feel that way now

This is right now!
take back up all your big words and live your life the way you want to! oh yeah you know what I'm talking about you can play them cards play your games because this is right now

than us again, on my own
this is right now, this is forever (whoa)
this is right now, this is forever

some may say that walking and running are a single thing and you've taken it too far (taken it too far) and I say and I scream whoa

oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
