

Pure Love, Handsome Devil's Club

Find me all the girls that came for love
And the bad girls just wanna fuck.
Find me all the girls that look like sin,
Bring them to my door and I'll let them in.

We are the wrong and the guilty,
We are the young and the unimpressed.
We are the handsome devil's club,
Lust, life and death.
We are the hopeless hearts,
We are the fools in love,
We are the handsome devil's club.

Find me all the posh and proper girls,
Who wouldn't look at me for all the diamonds in the world.
I'll be the boy they swear that they regret,
But secretly still makes them wet.

We are the wrong and the guilty,
We are the young and the unimpressed.
We are the handsome devil's club,
Lust, life and death.
We are the hopeless hearts,
We are the fools in love,
We are the handsome devil's club.
The handsome devil's club.

So give me a good girl,
The kind that wants to please.
Give me a good girl,
Down on her knees.
Find me a good girl,
So I can propose.
Show me a good girl,
That won't ever say no.

We are the wrong and the guilty,
We are the young and the unimpressed.
We are the handsome devil's club,
Lust, life and death.
We are the hopeless hearts,
We are the fools in love,
We are the handsome devil's club...
We are the handsome devil's club...
We are the handsome devil's club...
We are the handsome devil's club...
We are the handsome devil's club...
