

Purple Disco Machine, Something On My Mind - f

I'm not interested in love in a soundbite
Or skipping mid way through the night
Don't wanna cut down to the obvious highlights
You've gone too long unsatisfied

How does it feel
When you lie awake
Ignore the ache
Just to get through?
How does it feel
When you lie awake?

Well are you dreaming of me?
'cause there's something on my mind
Yeah my heart tried to warn me
But there's something on my mind

I wanna say that thing that pulls you in closer
That makes you hold on to a life
I tried to write something that moves the future
But that's not what you want tonight

How does it feel
When you lie awake
Ignore the ache
Just to get through?
How does it feel
When you lie awake?

Well are you dreaming of me?
'Cause there's something on my mind
Yeah my heart tried to warn me
But there's something on my mind

And I'm not ready to give you up
And I'm not ready to give you up

How does it feel
When you lie awake
Ignore the ache
Just to get through?
How does it feel
When you lie awake?
