

Quadron, Hey Love

Hey love, what's going on in here?
You're ruthless lights my soul.
Hey love, why you don't seem to care
Who do I belong?!
Trying my best to make this an insult
By planning you out despair. But,
Hey love, what's going on in here?
You're ruthless lights my soul.

Promise the best is yet to come,
Oh, please tell me the truth
We'll be the two of us, not one
Oh, please tell me the truth.
So, I could put it up the one
Ruth it up the one,
I prove that I'm the one,
I proved.
Oh please tell me the truth,
So I could prove that I'm the one.

Hey love, I've been set affair
But I'm restless for your charm
Hey love, do you really think it's fair?!
This search it's been so long!
Crying for reasons, and try to believe
That I'm too young to fall in love.
But hey love, what's going on in here?
You're ruthless lights my soul.

Promise the best is yet to come,
Oh, please tell me the truth
We'll be the two of us, not one
Oh, please tell me the truth.
So, I could put it up the one
Ruth it up the one,
I prove that I'm the one,
I proved.
Oh please tell me the truth,
So I could prove that I'm the one.

But if you really want my life
You got to show me,
Only knew ,waiting in the dark for you.

Promise the best is yet to come,
Oh, please tell me the truth
We'll be the two of us, not one
Oh, please tell me the truth.
So, I could put it up the one
Ruth it up the one,
I prove that I'm the one,
I proved.
Oh please tell me the truth,
So I could prove that I'm the one.
