

Queen, Through the night

Tell me something that'll ease the pain
I am living life in vain crying doesn't help me anymore
Tell me something that'll ease my mind I'm walking the line trying doesn't get me anywhere
I wonder through the night
All stars are shining bright
searching for a guiding light
I wonder through the night
Tell me something 'cos I need to know
Can you teach me how to live
how to understand how to love and how to give Anger burns in bitterness
and fills me up inside
can't face it and there's no place I can hide
I wonder through the night
All stars are shining bright
searching for a guiding light
I wonder through the night
Tell me something 'cos I need to know
Can you teach me how to live
how to understand
without your love there's nowhere I can die
I wonder through the night
searching for a guiding light
