

Queens Of The Stone Age, 3's and 7's

Lie, lie to my face
Tell me it ain't no thing
That's what I wanna hear
Take, your lie to the grave
That's what an old friend told me
Look what it did for him

Refr:

The truth hurts so bad, wouldn't you say?

So why tell it?

If ignorance is bliss, then I'm in

Heaven now

Run, you'll never escape

You see, you'll go nowhere

Based on who you appear

Broke, laid to waste

Turn into sweet no-things

Kiss you goodbye

So why tell it?

If ignorance is bliss, then I'm in

Heaven now

Keep going over and over again

The never ending places I've never been

No one is catching on

Callin' my bluff

The devil made me holier than I've ever been

What'd you do?

Say it with a smile, boy

Making us all forget

What'd you do?

Say it with a smile, boy

Making us all forget

Making us all forget

Making us all forget
