R.E.M., Shaking Through

Could it be that one small voice doesn't count in the world? Yellow like a geisha gown, denial all the way Could this by three be turned? Honor marches on. Yellow like a geisha gown, denial all the way

Shaking through, opportune. Shaking through, opportune.

Are we grown way too far? Taking after rain Yellow like a geisha gown, denial all the way Shaking through, opportune. Shaking through, opportune.

In my life.

Is that a steal? Children of today on parade, Yellow like a geisha gown, denial all the way Shaking through, opportune. Shaking through, opportune. Shaking through, opportune. Shaking through, opportune.
