R.E.M., Why Not Smile

The concrete broke your fall To hear you speak of it I'd have done anything I would do anything I feel like a cartoon brick wall To hear you speak of it You've been so sad It makes me worry Why not smile? You've been sad for a while. Why not smile?

I would do anything
To hear you speak of it.
Why not smile?
You've been sad for a while.
You've been sad for a while.
