

R3HAB x Gabry Ponte, The Portrait (Ooh La La)

(Ooh La La)

(Ooh La La)

When she's walking down the street
With stilettos on her feet
Everybody wants a piece
Ut she's way out of their league

Lipstick on her cigarette
Thousand pearls around her neck
Just like Marie Antoinette
People stop and stare and they go

She's a Marilyn Monroe
Always there to steal the show
All the touches turn to gold
But she'll leave ypu in the cold

Turn the world all upside down
She's the talk all over town
And she loves the pretty sound
People stop and stare and they go
