

Ra, Only

And as the sun goes down, I cry myself to sleep

I watch the bugs crawling
Across my skin
Now that you are gone
I can let things crumble
And though it seems
As this was meant to be
It's so hard to see
And all I do is stumble
The candles burn
But it's still too dark
I have given up
So it's not worth trying
I'll face the truth
When I think I can
Try to understand
What I love denying

Chorus-
I'm only
Falling through the cracks
I'm only
Losing my will to live
I'm only
Broken and beaten down
I'm only
I'm only

I've got to go
This place is poison now
Now that you are gone
And your ghost ignores me
I beg and plead with eternity
But this fantasy
I see abhors me
Visions come during later nights
Angels devils pray are my weakened vision
And out of reach
There's a time made light
That could set things right
If I could change positions

Chorus

If only the sun
Could spare me this pain
I would open up the doors
And let him in
And look into his eyes
He's burned away our lives
Take you from my heart and from my side
