

Radiohead, Big Boots (Man O War)

Drift all you like
From ocean to ocean
Search the whole world
But drunken confessions
And hijacked affairs
Just make you more alone
If you come home
I'll bake you a cake
Made of all their eyes
I wish you could see me
Dressed for the kill
You're my man of war
You're my man of war
The worms will come for you
So unplug the phone
Stop all the taps
It all comes flooding back
From poison clouds to poisoned dwarf
You're my man-o-war
You're my man-o-war
The worms will come for you
Big boots
For you
Big boots
