

Rag'n'Bone Man, Fall in Love Again you don't have to stay till the morning you can leave without a warning if you want to don't be scared to hurt my feelings or creep out when i am still sleeping if yu want to

don't stay too long
i don't wanna fall in love again
don't cross the line
i don't wanna fall in love again

i'll avoid the conversation say that i need my space not cause i want to i will make some poor excuses every time that i get close to you

don't stay too long
don't cross the line

feels like it's enough to drive you mad but now the silence doesn;t feel so bad i know i said i'd rather be alone but i just got used to being on my own

don't stay too long
don't cross the line
