

Rage Against the Machine, Bombtrack (evening s

This version has an extra verse:

Yeah, I tried to look back to my past long lost
A blood-donor to the landowner holocaust
Pop's heart stopped, then came the air drop
Flooded the trench, couldn't shake the toxic shock
Maize, was all we needed to sustain
Now her golden skin burns, insecticide rains
Down with DDT, yeah you know me
Raped for the grapes and a profit for the bourgeoisie
My war tape booming and my path is Luminoso
I'm headed north like my name was kid 'Cisco
To survive, just a profit loss and learn (?)
I gotta break 'em off and watch 'em burn
