

Rage, Back In Time

What's this scenery, I can see it clearly
I'm the visionary, it's the moment of my birth

The intention's here, this was how I planned to be
But reality shows the weaker part of me

I wish that I could turn back time

Journey far beyond my memory
Driven back in time
Travel to my secret history
Driven back in time
Driven back in time
Driven back in time

Through the centuries, I tried to get experienced
Now I have to see, wisdom starts where knowledge ends

Once again I've failed, I didn't use my precious time
To fulfill my part, to remember me that I'm

Linked into the global vision

Journey far beyond my memory
Driven back in time
Travel to my secret history
Driven back in time
Driven back in time
Driven back in time...
