

Rage, In Vain (I Won't Go Down)

This is my life and I won't compromise or waste my time All I have done I did on purpose 'cause I want it to do if I was wrong I'm very sorry but this happens when you try sometimes you can't foresee how things are working out and what it's about...

if it all was in vain I won't sigh for a single day
I'll do it again and again
If it was in vain I will wait for another time
I swear. I won't go down again

And if I doubt I might have failed even before the day is done how can I know if I don't dare?
Am I allowed do it twice if I don't make it at first time?
Then I will learn from my mistakes and I'll do right haven't I try...?

if it all was in vain I won't sigh for a single day
I'll do it again and again
If it was in vain I will wait for another time
I swear. I won't go down again

I know you know that we can We hold the key in our hands to make it better, then it wasn't all in vain
