Rage, Seven Deadly Sins

They run the endless debate Who's right and who is wrong In their eyes we've all failed in life

Old men in silk and diamonds Decide who's right to kill A soldier with god; not so his wife

It's just another way to multiply their power They need a reason to survive Seven deadly sins Just give them fear of hell, obey the ivory tower If they all want to stay alive Seven deadly sins - seven deadly sins

Who are they to speak justice About another man They've tortured and killed through history

How can you dogmatise it You cannot shape the truth There's no way to order belief

It's just another game to multiply their power They need a reason to survive Seven deadly sins If we all fear their hell, obey their ivory tower They have a chance to stay alive Seven deadly sins - seven deadly sins
