

RAM, Return of the Iron Tyrant

The chains are broken
In exile no more
The tide is turning
He is stronger than before
The troops are restless
Hungry for war
They kneel before an empty throne
Loyal to their lord

Burn, now it's time to burn
The destruction will return
Rising again in steel and fire
Hate, in fury dominate
Behead and mutilate
The warmachine of pain and violence

The oppressive transformer
Defiler of ways
Has come back to conquer
To pillage and raze
The earth is shaking
The walls begin to crack
The sheep are anxious
Fearing the attack

Burn, now it's time to burn
The destruction will return
Rising again in steel and fire
Hate, in fury dominate
Behead and mutilate
The warmachine of pain and violence

Violator, desecrator, perpetrator steals your life
Incinerator, demolator, devastator reaping knife

The return of the iron tyrant

The nihil banner
Banner of black
Flying high through the world
Desolate and cracked
The crimson banner
Banner of blood
Death to all life
All life to death

Burn, now it's time to burn
The destruction will return
Rising again in steel and fire
Hate, in fury dominate
Behead and mutilate
The warmachine of pain and violence
