

Ramallah, Heart Full Of Love

I want to cut the brakes on every SUV in the world
My heart's so full of love
And I'd love to burn down to ashes every jewelry store in the world
My heart's so full of love
I'd love to drown in crude oil every "spring break" beach in the world
My heart's so full of love
I'd love to slap awake every sheep that puts their faith in the monsters that run - our - world
I'd love to rape a Hilton sister or kill an FM show director
And piss on the illusions that you hold so dear
I'd love to silence all the liars
Preaching what they know is poison
Piss on their illusions and show you true fear
I want to grind into dust your American Idols
All with a heart full of love (Drop it)

Check this out
My heart's so full of love
That I would save you all if I only could
My heart's so full of love
I'd even die for your sins than watch it all fall
My heart is so full of love

Blood
Terrorist, is your heart also full of love?
Ter-ror-ist, is your heart also full of love?
