

Rammstein, Wut Will Nicht Sterben (Rage Does Not Want To Die)

Tell me how far you want to go do you want to see him on the floor - "Yes" do you want him to kneel before you do you want him to beg for mercy

Thoughts of vengeance whipped from humility you don't see or hear anything your sick feelings don't give him a chance your rage does not want to die and only that keeps you alive

You can, you want and will never forgive and you condemn his life you drift in the insanity from excessive anger, destruction and vengeance, you were born to hate

"My rage does not want to die"
"my rage does not want to die"
"my rage will never die"

You ram your hatred like a stone into him "Ramming stone" - you have pursued, hunted, and cursed him and he has taken his heels, crawling

and you condemn his life
you drift in the insanity from
excessive anger, destruction and vengeance,
you were born to hate

"My rage does not want to die"
"my rage does not want to die"
"my rage will never die"

You can, you want and will never forgive
and you condemn his life
you drift in the insanity from
excessive anger, destruction and vengeance,
you were born to hate

"My rage does not want to die"
"my rage does not want to die"
"my rage will never die"
